Dear Members of the Society of Christian Ethics,

The Lifetime Achievement Award of the Society of Christian Ethics is given at the discretion of the Board of Directors to recognize outstanding, sustained, and substantive contributions that have advanced the field of Christian ethics. Each year the Board invites all members to help identify those long-time members of the Society whose work over many years has made a lasting contribution to our field.

In order to be eligible for the award a person should be or should have been a member of the Society of Christian Ethics for more than fifteen years. Normally the following factors are taken into consideration: the quality, reception, and quantity of the member's publications; the degree to which the member's scholarship has contributed to defining issues Christian ethicists must address; the member's influence within the field of Christian ethics as manifested in the work of her or his students; and the influence of the member's scholarship in promoting the importance and relevance of Christian ethics for audiences beyond the discipline itself and beyond the academy. Further information about the award, including the list of past recipients, can be found on the Society's website: <https://scethics.org/lifetime-achievement-award>.

Information is gathered by the Lifetime Achievement Award Committee, which then makes a recommendation to the Executive Committee of the Board at its spring meeting. The membership of this selection committee changes each year, being made up of the three Board members who have just completed their terms of office, with the past president as chair. Members this year will be Angela Sims, Sharon Tan, Reggie Williams, and Diane Yeager.

If you wish to nominate someone for consideration, please send a letter of nomination that includes a concise description of the nominee's accomplishments. If the nominee's cv can be discretely obtained, that would be helpful. Letters of nomination may be emailed to Linda Schreiber at sce@scethics.org and must arrive before midnight March 18, 2019. Letters of nomination may also be faxed to (320) 252-6984 or mailed to

Society of Christian Ethics
P.O. Box 56302-5126
St. Cloud, MN 56302-5126

Ground letters should be mailed so that they reach the Society no later than Monday, March 18, 2019. All letters will be promptly forwarded to the selection committee, along with nomination letters submitted in previous years.

Please note that the SCE has created a dedicated fund for donations members may wish to make specifically to defray the expenses associated with this award. Donations to this fund (or any other of our dedicated funds) are always deeply appreciated and are fully tax deductible.

Don't hesitate to contact Linda Schreiber if you have questions. I will be unable to respond to inquiries during February, so if there are any issues that Linda cannot address, please contact President Patti Jung at patricia.jung@spst.edu.

Sincerely yours,

Diane Yeager
